Weaver's Triumph.

Gallant Tennessee Popu-Greet Their Brave Lead-
With Music and Cheers.

Campaign Liars Hide Themselves in Shame Amid Jeers of Thousands.

Hope of a Southern Journalis-Campaign of Malice, Falsehood, Violence and Cowardly Brag and Bluster.

Special to the News.

PULASKI, Tenn., Oct. 8.—This has been a great day for Pulas-and the people's party and event of great importance in history of this campaign.
The effort was made by the ring Democrats of Tennes-and by the Democratic to keep General Weaver filling his appointment
They said they were as-ished at the audacity of the that it would be impossito avert trouble of the most ous character. Congress-and democrats and repubstate committees implored not to think of going and personal safety could not sured.

CROOKED UP SLANDERS.

Last Monday circulars were ered broadcast in Pulaski ncing that Gen. J. B. ver, people's party candifor president, would speak on Saturday. General ver had been charged by Cleveland faction in Tenn-with cruelty to the people Pulaski while he was a union r commanding troops thirty years ago. A lot false affidavits had been ed up, alleging poultry , hog stealing as well as r crimes upon the part of eral Weaver during the

DISCREDITABLE JOURNALISM.

These slanders had been fully and deliberately cir-ted by such papers as the anta Journal, Louisville urier Journal with a view to ting the Southern people to olence, and if possible, causinjury to if not the death of eral Weaver by hoodlum ans. It was never intended these Cleveland managers Weaver should remain g enough in the Southern es to refute these slanders hence, the hired rotten egg owers at Columbus and Ma-
, Ga., and Richmond, Va., s set on to do their disgrace-work.

VERY PERSONAL JOURNALISM.

Last week when General aver and wife and Mrs.
s of Kansas entered Ken-y, the Courier Journal pub-ed a double leaded page cle of inflamable excitable ders calculated to stir the thern people up to assault eral Weaver, and scattered n all over the South. This followed by daily articles dicting violence if Weaver ld to go to Pulaski, and ched in such language as to ertly invite an assault on a liant ex-union soldier.

VIOLENCE THREATENED.

When General Weaver near-Nashville on his way to Pu-id the Cleveland managers came frantic lest he should and expose their infamous lsehoods. The Louisville
urier Journal Nashville ecial last Tuesday declared at so violent and outspoken re the people of Pulaski in ir hospitality to Weaver at a meeting of citizens was lled, and a committee sent to Nashville to-day to confer with e state democratic executive mmittee. The facts were pre-nted to Chairman Carroll, d he last night sent to the airman of the Giles county mocratic executive commit-e the following letter:

Major J. B. Stacy, Pulaski, enn.—My dear sir: With reet I learn that a few of the tizens of the law abiding unty of Giles express intem-erate language of opposition
the coming of General Weaver to Pulaski. On that count I write you to beg at you see to it that if he come he receive no indignity whatever. He has been accused of inhuman acts as a soldier while in command at that post. These acts have been set forth by citizens of Giles county in affidavits which have been published to the world. General Weaver is therefore, beyond peradventure, entitled to a respectful hearing in his defense. I sincerely hope that the day will never come when liberty loving Tennesseans will not hear patiently and respectfully both sides of any question. I am sure you will agree with me no matter how outraged the people of Giles county may feel, liberty of speech ought to be upheld, and General Weaver assured that he can say just what he pleases not only in Giles county, but anywhere in Tennessee. Yours very truly,

W. H. CARROLL, Ch'm.

Notwithstanding this action there are still grave fears of trouble.

PULASKI'S GRAND OVATION.

This morning's Nashville American said that it was evident that he intended to go, and that the responsibility must rest with himself. Well, Weaver went, accompanied by Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Lease and a number of friends. The people were there to give him a grand ovation. Instead of greeting him with violence, they met him with a brass band and a cheering crowd, mounted on horseback, to accompany him through the town, and around the square. Fully three thousand people wildly cheering for Weaver and Field greeted the carriages containing the party as they drove around the square and out to the fair grounds, where the speaking was to take place.

CHIVALROUS TENNESSEANS.

On arriving at the grounds General Weaver was introduced by Hon. J. H. McDowell, chairman of the state committee, who said that General Weaver had been traduced and had come to defend himself before his accusers and that his right to do so would not be denied by an audience of Tennesseans. Colonel McDowell was very complimentary in his remarks. General Weaver first made his regular speech, and then paid his respects to his accusers.

PUBLICLY BRANDED LIARS.

He took up the charges one by one and hurled the falsehoods squarely in the teeth of the campaign liars until there was not a shred of them left. His remarks touching his relation to the people of that town thirty years ago brought tears from all eyes, and his scathing arraignment of the base men who had slandered him called forth shouts of applause at every blow,

General Weaver, in his speech, said he was glad to meet the people of Giles county. He spoke of the dignity and importance attaching to the presidency and that the office should not be sought for. He said: "We are in the midst of a great popular upheaval—a breaking up of old parties. The people's party movement is sweeping all over the country and the movement is under the guidance of God"

FREE COINAGE ADVOCATED.

He founded his political faith upon the teaching of Thomas Jefferson and Jackson. At length he explained the idea that "all men are born equal." He spoke of the origin of the people's party and said that it was not a political, but a great moral movement for the righting of wrongs inflicted on the people. He said the government was worth more than his life. He devoted a great deal of his time to a discussion of the general question, advocating a free coinage of silver at great length. The sub-treasury plan received his appraval and he gave his reasons for indorsing it.

Just at this moment two farmers had a private dispute and came to blows, but were promptly arrested. This was the only disturbance of the day.

WHAT HE DID.

In regard to himself and his actions while commander of the post of Pulaski, General Weaver recited the list of charges against him, naming those citizens with whom he was associated and declared that not one thing done by him here was otherwise than in accordance with the duties of a military commander in such times. He said that if he had done what had been said of him his head would have been shaven and he would have been drummed out of the service. He acknowledged that he had levied a war tax of $2,000 on the better class of citizens of Pulaski, under orders from General Dodge, and that the money was used for carrying forward the negroes while refugees in town.

In summing up his answers to charges made against him, General Weaver said: "As God is my judge, I never did in Pulaski one single thing that is charged, except the levying of the money, and I pronounce the charges unqualified falsehoods. The war is over. I come on a mission of fraternity.

"THEY DARED ME TO COME."

"They said I dare not come. I knew I dared come, and I would have come had the threats been a thousand times stronger." Then General Weaver was wildly cheered. No violence or disorder occured and the triumph was complete. The meeting and its triumphant ending is of national importance. Too much praise cannot be given to the noble men of Tennessee who are determined that their standard bearer should have an opportunity to vindicate himself before the world.

THE SLANDERERS SNEAKED OFF.

While the meeting was in progress the slanderers got a small crowd together at the court house square and reiterated the stale slanders, but they were too cowardly to face General Weaver or to come under his scathing fire. They preferred to get off in the dark and hoot like owls which detest the light. The accusers fled before the rebuke and dare not stay to face the man whom they had basely slandered. It has been a glorious day for the populiste. Colonel McDowell, chairman state committee, and L. K. Taylor, secretary, are entitled to the gratitude of the whole country for their manly work in connection with this meeting and with the cause in Tennessee.

Collin-Hunt Medical Society.

FARMERSVILLE, Collin Co., Tex., Oct. 13.—The physicians of Farmersville, Nevada, Floyd, Merritt, Blue Ridge and vicinity, met in Farmersville last Tuesday afternoon and organized the "East Collin and West Hunt Medical Society." Dr. A. H. Neathery was made president, Drs. D. C. Pardue and Wright Hicks first and second vice presidents, Dr. James Williams secretary, and J. M. Andrews, treasurer. The society organized with twenty-two members and was entertained at its initial meeting by papers read by Drs. J. S. Welch and J. D. Burt. The society meets again on the second Tuesday in November.

The Fight Against Watson.

Tom Watson has got to fight the combined power of hell and money in the tenth Georgia district. Livingston said at Gainesville in the presence of six witnesses that one hundred thousand dollars had been raised for the tenth. He said there was no doubt but what Watson had a majority of the white vote of the district, but they would buy up the negroes and floaters with this hundred thousand dollars and elect Black. He said the national campaign committee would put in fifty thousand, the city of Augusta twenty-five thousand and some sister city outside the district had subscribed twenty-five thousand—Linden Standard.

GIVE us a few more secret circulars, they are doing us good.

HOGG and his followers are on the run.

THE people are tired of one man power.

BRISTLES will come cheap after November 8th.

CLEVELAND handed his check in to the campaign treasurer for $10,000.

The campaign circular has flew up and hit its prompters in the face.

ANOTHER motto of the Hogg leaders:—Resort to ANYTHING to elect our ticket.

If you ain't for Hogg you ain't anything, is the cry of the followers of Mars Jim.

THINK of it! The great unterrified "strate" ticket. All running on Hogg's reputation.

IT is claimed that both the old parties have raised $2,000,000 each for campaighn purposes.

WE are thankful there are a few thousand people in Collin county yet who won't be led by a ring in the nose.

Senator Coke spoke to a small audience last Monday on the subject "Clark, Cuney and the coons."

J. M. PENIMAN, a democratic nominee in Hill county and a Clarkite was invited to step down and out by the Hogg committee.

WONDER why the secret Sunday law circular does not contain ALL the names on the original petition, and especially the names of those who are candidates for office on the Hogg ticket.

THERE was a secret owl meeting of the Hogg faithfuls last Thursday night in a certain law office in McKinney. No doubt another secret circular will make its appearance soon.

NO ONE can point to a single instance where Todd Warden was ever drunk or failed to do his duty as an officer. Can the Hogg heelers say the same of some of their pet candidates.

THE People's party is a fixture in the United States. Its growth has been wonderful. After the coming election thousands of voters of the old parties will realize how they have been humbugged and will join in the new movement.

A WELL-POSTED democrat remarked after reading that secret circular, "That thing will make Todd Warden 500 more votes." So much for the Hogg leaders. They are like their Mas Jim, they never open their mouth that they don't put their feet in it.

If we had not been raised as a gentleman we could make some startling expourers by entering into personalities, but we will quietly rest on our arms and let our enemies wallow in the mud and slime of their own campaign tricks yet a little while.

Among the items of expenses of the county commissioner's court is a little sum of about $300 for buggy hire. Wonder if this is part of the trimmings belongs to the $1800 salary of the county judge.

ALL church loving people should condemn in the strongest terms, the secret circular issued by the Hogg followers in this city. They are trying to mix church and state in the present campaign, and we believe some of them would resort to the downfall of the church in order to elect their ticket.

TAX-PAYERS, do you know that you have to pay the expenses of Hogg and his henchmen, who are, and have been for the past six months, traveling over the state abusing and denouncing you on every stump because you dare to express your God-given right as freemen to oppose him and his tyranical rule. Don't you think it is time to call a halt!

OUR friends all over the county assure us that the campaign circular sent out last week is doing good for every candidate on the people's party ticket. The people are not all fools and cannot be voted by appealing to predudice,

WE are in favor of enforcing law and order and will violate just as few of them as any of the men who issued the campaign circular last week.

THE Hogg men are looking very pious around the streets lately. In fact you would think it a catholic procession as they solemnly tread around with their campaign circular. Let the poor fellows move on to the tomb of political oblivion.

R. V. BELL, people's party candidate for congress is one of the best posted and shrewdest debators on the stump. Ask Mr. Bailey in regard to it.

BROTHER GREER, while reading the alleged Sunday law petition should inform his audiences that said petition does not interfere with a man organizing a gin trust.

WE are expecting to have to call on the good ministers of our city and get a certificate of good behavior and hand to the Hogg judges on the morning of the election.

THE Hogg men who issued the late campaign circular underscored the names of E. W. Kirkpatrick, Todd Warden, S. H. Cole and G. H. Herndon. We hereby challenge the whole Hogg crowd to trot out four better lawabiding and worthy citizens than the gentlemen named. You can't do it and you know it.

Our readers will please excuse us this week. We are getting into politics and are rather inclined to make the fur fly.

WE know of some men who have been accused of wrong doing and have been protected by a friend, then that friend has been stabbed in return by the sword of ingratitude.

Governor Hogg addressed the Hogg club at the court house last Monday night. The governor avoided personalities by abusing Clark, Cuney and his followers. He has changed his ideas about the darkey since two years ago.

We were at Plano last Monday and heard Harry Tracy speak to about 300 voters on the streets. He read Senator Coke's speech in which "Old Brains" denounced both Harrison and Cleveland as being agents of Wall street.

THE kind hearted, gentlemanly, liberty loving, noble defender of the Sabbath and editor of the great religeous weekly across the way must not let it leak out that his candidate for sheriff has been owning a saloon for some time past in a little burg in the South part of the county. It is not right to expose any one but the other fellow "downcherno."

ONE of our big proportioned opponents remarked in the presence of witnesses near the Post Office that he knew every signer of the alleged petition regarding the Sunday law to be outlaws. We do not know all the names on said petition, but we do in behalf of some of them denounce the same as an infamous falsehood.

T. F. Mangum, Judge Abernathy and J. R. Gough addressed the Hogg club last Monday night. The judge recognized Hogg as the great "I am" and declared that all other applicants for the crown would be buried forever (!) (!) (!) (!) (!) (!) Mr. Gough laid his grievences before the club to the effect that Mr. Branch, his opponent, was fighting the Hogg administration and his platform. The writer came to the conclusion that Branch was making things lively for Gough. Well it is certainly a tough job for Jim to defend Jim and Jim's platform.

WHY WAS CLEVELAND NOMINATED BY HIS PARTY?

Let Mugwumps, Boodlers, Liberty Stranglers, Justice Eradicators and Extinguishers of Democracy Rise Up and Give Answer.

The Nashville American says: "The demand for Cleveland's nomination came from the masses of the people."

Just why this is so would be hard for the man-worshipping editor of the American to give a concise and comprehensive answer.

Was it because he was no democrat on the silver question?

Was it because his last nomination was the result of the manipulation of republican boodlers?

Was it because he favors a national banking system, while the democratic party professes to oppose it?

Was it because every act of his administration proved him to be in sympathy with Wall street, to the detriment of the masses?

Was it because that during his administration national taxation was not reduced and that he lent the surplus of the people's money to national banks without interest!

Was it because of his love for national banks as evidenced by the personel of his cabinet?

Was it because he voted a bill for the relief of Texas drouth sufferers, who were democrats, and approved a bill for the relief of Mississippi flood sufferers who were negro republicans?

Was it because he retained republicans in office to strengthen himself with that party?

Was it because he signed the bills granting private pensions to Mesdames Grant and Garfield and vetoed many similar bills where the pensioners were obscure and needy.

Was it because he retained as register of deeds Fred Douglas (a negro) and received the said Douglas and his family as invited guests at his inaugural ball?

Was it because he named one of the custom officers of the city of Boston (a negro) and insulted the senior senator of Tennessee (Isham G. Harris) because he made some comments on the selection?

Was it because that during his administration Mills introduced and had passed a bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to purchase bonds that were not due at a premium which has cost the masses $70,000,000.

Was it because as a tariff reformer he was content with an offered reduction of less than six per cent. of a robber tariff?

—Southern Mercury.

Weaver's Character Vindicated.

The Washington Post, an old party paper, had an interview with Gen. Dodge who was well acquainted with Col. Weaver during the war and had command of the army in Tennessee over him at the time. Gen. Dodge says: "Gen. Weaver was a most efficient general." chivalry, etc. "The stories now being circulated concerning his alleged cruelties at Pulaski, Tenn.," he says constitute "an assault solely for the purpose of diminishing his popularity in the south." Gen. Dodge says "In the position Gen. Weaver then occupied it would have been simply impossible for the latter (Gen. Weaver) to have committed the inhuman and barberous acts that are charged against him."

"They are," he says, "entirely untrue." Such testimony, coming from political enemies should settle the question with all fair minded people.—Advance.

Coke's speech in the senate and Bailey's letter to a Farmersville friend is interesting and refreshing just at this stage of the game.

VOTE for Nugent.

"I AM Jim Hogg."—Hogg's speech.

"We thank God that we are not as other men."—Hoggites.

We are in favor of any agency which tends to better the condition of the human race;—to cause happiness and prosperity to reign.

Coke says if you can't vote for Hogg vote for Nugent. All right senator, one hundred and sixty thousand votes will be cast for Nugent in obediance to your will. But don't kill us for it.

THE Alien Land law, the text book law and the railroad commission have all been knocked out by the courts. Where is Hogg's competency? Elect Judge Nugent, one of the best Judges in the state of Texas.

Intolerance is abroad in the land. When the common people undertake to hold political meetings they are often disturbed by a lot of prejudiced cranks who vainly imagine that they possess all rights of the human race. The toilers have a right and will be heard in spite of the brainless croaking of such opponents.

WHEN Gov. Hogg began his speech at Farmersville, he invited any one to ask him a question. Before he ended his speech some one in the crowd asked something about Judge Nugent, whereupon the Governor swelled in an important manner and blustered out, "who is Nugent?" He will probably know something about Nugent after Nov. 8th next.

A GENTLEMAN gives encouraging news from Anna. He says that the north part of his precinct will go 3 to 1 in favor of the people's party. He says that Anna and Martin box will be carried by the people's party. He furthermore says; "You have heard of fellows going up the spout, but when Messrs. Greer and Branch had their joint discussion at Anna, Greer went up but the people think he will have equally as hard, if not a hardre road to travel while around with Kirkpatrick."

Hypocracy Abroad.

The "Puritans" have been heard From. Read and Reflect.

WHO ARE GOOD CITIZENS? WHY DISCRIMINATE?

In our issue of Oct. 13th we gave notice that we would devote some attention to a campaign circular which reached our office just before going to press. The document referred to is the production of the Hogg democracy of McKinney and issued from the press room of that great religious (!) weekly the Enquirer, across the way. It is a reproduction of a petition, regarding the Sunday laws, which was circulated in Collin county some two years ago. The gentlemen who circulated the petition say that two lists were handed to the Hon. H. A. Finch and contained something over 200 names among them some of the most prominent citizens of McKinney and Collin county. Now it has entered the minds of certain Hoggocrats in McKinney that the church people of Collin county can be prejudiced against certain independent candidates and at the same time to hit the Clark following a slap. They have searched through the said list and selected the individuals whom they wished to make the victims of prejudice. Upon the appearance of the document the writer called on Mr. Finch and asked for the original copy but was informed that he, (Finch,) knew nothing of its whereabouts. Others, like the writer, presumed that Mr. Finch was the gentleman who furnished the copy to the great religeous weekly, consequently he was called on to learn its whereabouts and finally he discovered that the original copy was in the hands of Capt. J. H. Bingham. Now this man, who looks like John H. Bingham, was called on by several gentlemen whose names were attached to the instrument and asked to examine all the names attached thereto. The saintly custodian and high priest of the Hogg crowd refused however stating that a great many of the names he did not wish to parade before the public, that no one inside of the holy Hogg ranks must be "embarassed." Now we charge that such proceedings is the height of unfairness, unchristian and contrary to justice, just such as can be expected from such a source.

If these latter day puritans will give us the original petition with all its signers we will help to circulate it that a reasonable public may know the entire truth regarding the same. We have directed a letter to Austin for the purpose of either getting a copy of the original two lists which were handed to Mr. Finch or if the original copy has been taken from the archives of the state we have requested the custodian to inform us who got it.

Late on Saturday evening Messrs. E. R. Hall, John Dugger and Dave Williams called on the Enquirer gentleman and asked to get the insrument. He replied that they would like a d——d sight of getting it. Then they requested him to let them take a copy of the names attached thereto. He also refused this fair request. We have been informed that a petition was being circulated at the same time which advised the enactment of the following in the criminal code.

"Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Texas, that title seven, chapter two, of the criminal code be amended by inserting therein the following article:

"Article 187, A. Any person or persons who shall hereafter on Sunday upon any of the streets, avenues, or public highways of this state within one-half mile of any church or school house, by loud or vociferous talking or swearing, or by any noise made by the use of musical or other instruments, disturb any congregation or part of a congregation assembled for religious worship, and conducting themselves in a lawful manner; or who shall on Sunday so disturb any congregation or part of a congregation assembled for the purpose of conducting or participating in a Sunday School or to transact any business relating to or in the interest of religious worship or a Sunday school, and conducting themselves in a lawful manner, shall be fined in any sum not less than $25 nor more than $100, and may be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days at the discretion of the jury. Provided, that this law shall not apply to the case of funerals."

We have already heard of several good democrats who signed the said petition, used for campaign purposes, who insist that they thought it was a protest against the above proposition, while others deny signing any thing of the kind. It will be remembered that a bill was presented in the senate which repealed a portion of the Sunday law and which THE DEMOCRATIC SENATE OF TEXAS PASSED. This same gang of Hogg democracy in the language of the promoters of this much discussed campaign circular, is "offering for office" all over Texas "to which the attenton of voters in Collin county is directed." No gentlemen, your scheme will not work. The good voters of Collin county are too sensible to be drawn aside from the main issues by your wily and hypocritical movements. They well know that the men you try to injure stand mountain high aboveyou in the estimation of an unprejudiced world. The history of at least part of you is too fresh in their minds, and they propose to investigate and cast an unbiased ballot. Therefore you may continue with your slimy methods, for Divinity has said "Let the heathen rage."

Later: We have heard from the honorable secretary of state who informed us that said papers are not on file, that some one has taken them away without his knowledge.

Rutabaga After Coke.

MCKINNEY, Tex., Oct. 19, '92.

Senator Coke spoke in McKinney last Monday to a small audience. Prior to his coming, considerable discussion had been engaged in by the Hoggites, regarding Coke's Hillsboro speech, an extract of which reads as follows:

"Let me tell you now, that with the light of the pass before us, I assert and charge that any man who opposes the regular democratic ticket, headed by Gov. Hogg is a traitor to the democracy and his country. With the force bill staring us in the face as it does, I say that the hand that scratches a democratic ticket in the coming election is the hand of a traitor and the owner of that hand ought not to live."

The Hogg crowd declared that he never made the speech. A large portion of the Nugent and Clark following believe that he delivered it. The Hogg followers here said that Coke would deny it when he got to McKinney. I also believed he would denounce it. The senator came and wishing to have him to answer other questions, I sent one of Coke's particular friends, who is a prominent merchant in McKinney, to ask for a division of time, or to answer a few leading questions. He refused to do either. Now, this proves to all reasonable men that Coke is not an honest leader. Why should any honest witness refuse to be cross examined?

When Coke spoke at Denton, I understand that a leading democrat, of that county and a candidate, asked the Senator why he called 300,000 voters, who will vote against Hogg traitors and that they should not live.

This democrat says that Coke answered that the papers had lied on him and that he would straighten up the matter during his speech, but he never uttered one word of denial.

Now, Coke knew that the above question was one that I intended to put to him.

I will now put other questions to him. Do you indorse Hogg's state platform? Next, did you vote for Judge McCormick for Federal Judge and did you vote to extend his circuit over five states? Next, is McCormick a two by four Judge? Last, did you vote for Cuney?

Now Senator please answer the above questions. Are you guilty or not guilty?

I'm sure, from the treatment I received from you in McKinney, that you have said that I am a traitor and should not live.

Now, knowing you as I do, I do not believe you a liar nor a murderer. But I do believe that old age or whisky has got away with you and in justice to you and your friends you and Granny Reagan had better resign, also in your last moment inform Hogg that there is a constitution. This is all. Yours in sympathy,

JOHN JOHNSON.

DRAWING NEAR.

The Big Circus Day of All The Year.

As old "Rough and Ready" would have put it, "all the world and the rest of mankind" hereabouts are pictorially and editorially advised of the hilarious fact that Sells Brothers' Big Show of the world is to give afternoon and evening exhibitions at McKinney on Saturday, Oct. 22, preceded by a grand free morning parade of unusual liberality and attractiveness. The various interesting and amusing exhibitions massed under the huge tents need not be re-enumerated, but it is pertinent to say that one and all will be forthcoming, as Sells Brothers are honest and impartial managers, who wisely regard one man's money as good as another's, and everywhere, and at every performance, return precisely the same abundant and satisfactory equivalent for the price of admission. This is not the custom with one or more shows of boasted metropolitan reputation which give much better exhibitions in New York City and Philadelphia than elsewhere, and having thus secured favorable and misleading notices, foist upon what they are pleased to term us "ruralites" cut-down performances, inferior performers and cheap, tawdry displays. It, furthermore, is a fact that the really great artists which only appear with them for a few days in the cities named are always engaged by Sells Brothers for the entire season, making their big circus salary list far the most expensive of any on the road. We need not comment upon this radical difference in policy and presentation. It shows for itself, and should be condemned in the one case and encouraged in the other by all who despise a cheat and believing in a squard deal.

While abroad with their show, Sells' Brothers added notably to its special attractions by purchasing in Australasia, East India and elsewhere many exceedingly rare and royal wild beasts, birds and reptiles, among them three tremendous Tigers, any one of which is big enough to swallow any other one heretofore exhibited, a whole drove of giant Kangaroos of varied hue, a flock of splendid, full-grown and baby Emus; prodigious constricting serpents, singular apes, and superbly-plumaged' language gifted birds. In truth great and proportionately successful efforts have been made to gather from every clime the most valuable and unique promoters of instruction and entertainment in living form, and the grand result cannot fail to universally profit and please.

A CARD.

A circular is being put in the hands of the voters of Collin county, purporting to be a petition of the citizens of Collin county, asking the repeal of all Sunday laws and addressed to the 22nd legislature of the State of Texas. As this document now appears, twenty six names of alleged signers are given, whilst I am informed the original petition contained about three hundred—and I am also informed that the original is in the possession of J. H. Bingham of the McKinney Enquirer—and that the circular above referred to emenates from his office.

My name appears in the list of signers among the 26 given to the public. But whether my signature to the original in Mr. Bingham's posession is genuine or not, I cannot say—my personal relations towards him having been for years of such a character as to preclude all intercourse between us, and consequently, I have had no opportunity to inspect what is claimed to be the original in his posession. I say this, because I have no recollection of ever seeing such a petition or of ever signing this or any one of this character. And I now solemnly assert and declare that I never did nor do not now entertain sentiments at all or in anyway in harmony with the petition referred to; and that I did not and would not upon deliberation sign such a petition. I further declare that if it be true that I signed said petition, it was done without a knowledge of its purport, and as hundreds of gratuitous petitions are signed every year to oblige friends, with no thought of perpetrating a wrong—As an instance of the habit prevailing as to this sort of thing I refer to our well known and highly esteemed fellow citicen, W. M. Bagley, whom I learned from his own mouth is one of the suppressed signers of this same petition, and who so incredulous, when informed he had signed it, that he took Dolyh Parker with him and inspected the original to find, not only that it was genuine, but that Parker was also a signer. The assertions of Mr. Bagley that he would not have signed such an instrument knowing its contents, will not be discredited in the face of his well known character for rectitude and moral worth. And so of many other signers equally good and reliable citizens, who disclaim all knowledge of having signed such a paper or of being in harmony with its purposes and declarations.

I hereby certify my willingness to make offidavit to the perfect truthfulness of every statement I have here made.

TRACY AT FARMERSVILLE.

Harry Tracy addressed about 600 voters at Farmersville last Tuesday night. He read Cokes speech and Henry Watterson's editorial to prove that Cleveland was against the interest of the masses. He gave Hogg and his platform of deceit, a severe rounding up. He charged Hogg with subscribing $300 to the late Farmer's World at Dallas for the purpose of breaking up the farmer's alliance. He proved that every important law enacted by Hogg and his legislature was knocked out by the courts of the country. He believed Hogg to be utterly incompetent and urged his hearers to vote for Judge Nugent a man whom we can depend on to give us laws that will be in harmony with the constitution and will stand all court tests. He regarded the race as being between Clark and Nugent and if the followers of Gov. Hogg wish to avert the election of Clark, they must leave the leadership of one who only practices deceit at the expense of the people.

R. W. COLEMAN DANGEROUSLY SICK.

The News Received With Sorrow.

Last Saturday evening a telegram was handed to the editor of the DEMOCRAT which reads as follows:

San Antonio, Oct. 15th 1892.

Coleman very sick. Cannot fill engagements.

TAYLOR MCREA.

Shortly afterwards the following was received in answer to a letter from the writer:

San Antonio, Oct. 18th 1892.

F. C. Thompson, McKinney, Texas.—Dear Sir:—Mr. Coleman is dangerously ill with Typhoid fever. Respt.,

MRS. R. W. COLEMAN.

McRea will write you.

The sad news was received with universal sorrow throughout the county. During his brief visit to the county a short time ago Mr. Coleman won the admiration of all who had the pleasure of meeting him. He is just entering the prime of life with a wonderful store of knowledge and a great heart beating in sympathy for the human race.

We hope our friends will fully spread the news that the people will know why Mr. Coleman's appointments could not be fulfilled.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by R. E. Bristol, Druggist.

WHILE the editor of this paper was in Plano last Monday we overheard one fellow telling a crowd of voters that the circular containing the Sunday law petition was issued by the independent candidates in order to gain the saloon vote. He may have been working under instructions of the fellows who held a dark lantern meeting in a certain law office on the South Side, last Thursday night. Of course we interfered and told the would be informant from what source the circular came.

WOMAN!

WOMAN is a marvelous creature. In her we have the most complex, most perfect, most beautiful work of God.

Her nature is cast in a more perfect mould than man's. It contains a larger proportion of the finer elements that link the race to a higher and better destiny.

She embodies in the most perfect degree the graces of modesty, patience, gratitude and devotion. These attributes have won for her, under the benign spirit of the Gospel of Christ, that exalted social position for which her Creator intended her.

Perfect as in her moral nature, it is no more admirable than the physical structure that holds it.

This intricate piece of mechanism, so finely balanced, so graceful, so compact of texture, so perfect in every detail, excites our wonder and awakens our admiration more and more, as we become aware of its completeness.

The Almighty created woman for a high and holy mission. He implanted in her a separate system of organic life, and prescribed duties for her to perform. To perfect His design and better enable her to fulfill her sacred trust, He blended the nobler attributes of mind with perfection of form. These qualities were made sympathetic. The perfection of one depends on the others, the weakness of one affects them all, and an injury to one throws the entire machinery of her multiple nature out of its intended balance.

The original mental and physical harmony of woman has not been maintained. While she has developed intellectually, expanded socially and advanced morally, she has sadly degenerated physically.

Therefore we have prepared and put upon the market

DEW DROP No. 2, Specially for Women.

This great remedy is wholly composed of Vegetable Ingredients, all of which are recognized by the medical profession to be the most potent herbal remedies known.

"DEW-DROP" operates directly on the mucous membranes of the body by its specific effects on the vaso-moter nerve center, imparing to capillary blood vessels of every mucous surface a healthy tone and elacticity. Every organ of human body is either lined or covered by a mucous membrane, which fact explains the remarkably extensive field of operation which this remedy has, and the numerous ills for which it is an absolute specific, and can be relied on always to permanently cure Liquor and Opium Habits, Acute or Chronic Catarrh, Neuralgia, Heart Diseases, Loss of Womanhood, Loss of Appetite, Loss of Sleep, Indigestion, Irregular Suppressed or Painful Menstration, Sexual Impotency, Sick Headache, Nervous or General Debility. "DEW-DROP" not only cures but prevents the above diseases.

Therefore use it sick or well. We repeat that "DEW-DROP" gives rest after a day's work, and sweet sleep at night.

It cures all nervous diseases and hysteria in women, restores loss of memory, drives away the blues or despondency, cures alcoholic or Morphine habit, etc. Should "DEW-DROP" fall short of what we claim, your money will be refunded.

THE New CANTON STALK CUTTER

We were the first manufacturers to introduce STALK CUTTERS, and have kept abreast of the times with modern IMPROVEMENTS. They are a valuable implement, preparing the ground for plowing, and leaving that to be turned under which ENRICHES THE SOIL. The CANTON has Spring on front end, connecting with lever, thus relieving the jarring motion from horses' necks, also giving knives a striking motion. This excellent feature is found only in the CANTON. It has HIGHEST METAL WHEELS, insuring LIGHTEST DRAFT. No Axle through centre of Reel to clog up with trash. Made with 8 Knives, so as to cut stalks short. Others have the same number of knives, but they are not properly proportioned, therefore cut the stalks same length as our 5 knife, SEE LOOK OUT FOR THEM! Other points of excellence given in circular, mailed free to any address. We also manufacture Canton Clipper Plows, Volunteer and Victor Cultivators, Disc Harrows, Tricycle Sulky and Gang Plows, Grain Drills, Cotton and Corn Planters and handle Buggies, Carts, Pumps, Wind Mills, BAIN, COOPER and OLDS WAGONS.
